

NEXT SAFE WS HOST ANNOUNCEMENT

APRSAF-17

22-26 Nov. 2010, Melbourne, Australia

What is SAFE?

- A voluntary-based initiative in Asia-Pacific region, born from APRSAF community
- Aims to encourage long-term environmental monitoring using space applications.
- The end users of SAFE are the agencies and experts that are responsible for the environment.

Thus, 25 – 26 May, 2009, 1st SAFE workshop was held in Pattaya, Thailand; further Jan. 28th, 2010, SAFE at APRSAF-16, Thailand; Aug. 29th, 2010, SAFE mini-WS in Jakarta, Indonesia.

2nd SAFE WS2010

And then, 28th – 29th June, 2010, 2nd SAFE workshop was held in Colombo, Sri Lanka

Announcement

Lao People's Democratic Republic

glad to co-host

Next SAFE workshop mid of 2011

In Vientiane, Lao PDR

Some Information for you

- ✓ Lao PDR: in SEA
- ✓ Population: 5.6 M.
- ✓ Area: 263 800 km²
- ✓ Capital city:
Vientiane Capital
- ✓ Currency: Kip
- ✓ Temperature:
From 15° c to 38° c
- ✓ Two seasons:
Rainy and Dry

The logo for WREA (Water Resource and Environment Research Institute) features the letters 'WREA' in white, bold, sans-serif font. The letters are set against a background that is split horizontally into a green top half and a blue bottom half. The entire logo is contained within a black rectangular border.

WREA

Dear APRSAF participating agencies you all are invited to our peaceful and smiling country
Lao PDR

Sangkhane Thiangthammavong
DDG, Water Resource and Environment
Research Institute, WREA
Email: th.khan@yahoo.com